Criminal Appeal No.2002 of 2001
(Old No. 3088/1999)

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain, J.

Heard Sri Lokendra Dobhal, learned counsel for the respondent and the learned A.G.A. appearing on behalf of the State.

Perused the copy of the impugned judgment. It is evident that the learned Magistrate has considered the entire oral and as well as documentary evidence in coming to the conclusion that there was no embezzlement and the charge against the accused-respondent was not proved beyond reasonable doubt. The case is based on proper and fair appraisal of the evidence and consequently the facts and circumstances do not warrant any favourable order for leave to appeal.

Considering this, the leave to appeal is refused. Consign.
